Moving Right Along

Well, I don't know about you, but last year was really long... And flew by at the same time. We had a few bumps along the way; and things haven't happened exactly like we expected, but we are still moving towards the vision God has placed in our hearts. In December I earned my Multi Engine Commercial Pilot License, and Single Engine Commercial Add-on in January. Things are getting accomplished, but we still have a ways to go.

Spanish Church

Our monthly outreaches are planned for the rest of the year in hopes of taking over the Spanish community in Muskogee with the love of Christ. Growth is taking time, but our we usually have great turnouts at our events.

- Enrolled in Aircraft Mechanic School at Tulsa Tech
- Enrolled in Flight Instructor Training at Riverside Flight Center

Run the race

With 2015 in full swing, we have all been able to evaluate how our goals are coming along. As we've had a lifetime to develop habits, another day will not likely have much of an impact without the right motivation and accountability. Most likely both are necessary for a successful lifestyle change. I would encourage you to embrace the power of same. Once you decide to make a change, tell a friend, someone who won't let you off the hook. Then let the routine become part of your character. It sure is tough to get started, but is well worth the initial discomfort for the joy of reaching a goal. Be defined by your steadfastness. Whether you are traveling life's highs or you're feeling extremely low, be steady and unmovable in your purpose.

Mission Mobilization

With the world attempting strip our core values of being a follower of Christ, I encourage you to increase your love for your Creator each day and strive to learn something new about Him each day. May we never be satisfied with our knowledge of the One who willingly gave His life for us, even while we wanted absolutely nothing to do with Him. What if a total stranger gave his life so you could keep yours? Would you not be forever indebted to him and his family? Wouldn't you be filled with excitement to tell everyone about the extra time you have been given because someone saw your life more valuable than theirs? So what is our response to the same instance... Except the One who chose to give His life knew you before you were born, prays for you, and has a vision for your life that is far beyond anything you could ever imagine.

We are forever grateful for all of your prayers and support along our journey. We could not be where we are today without YOU! May the Lord bless you and keep you. May He make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you. May He lift up His countenance to you and grant you peace.
